

ORDERED OUT OF TOWN

JOHN BRADY, WHO WAS KNOWN IN ST. LOUIS AS "JACK, THE SLASHER."

WAS WORKING AT HUCKINS HOTEL.

Recognized Recently by Lee T. Philpot, a Secret Service Officer, Who Gave Past History to Local Police.

John Brady, alias "Jack Sulky," alias "Jack, the Slasher," whose famous escapade in the World's Fair city some two years ago attracted the attention of every metropolitan police department in the country, was detected at work in this city by members of the local police department last week, and today Chief of Police Doult gave instructions to the man to leave the city, not later than the supper hour.

Carrying his personal belongings, Brady boarded Missouri Pacific train No. 2 at noon today, bound for St. Louis.

Brady, since April 1 last, has been employed as storekeeper at the Huckins hotel. Prior to coming to Sedalia, he made his home in St. Louis, and about three years ago began his maniac work in the Mound City.

Brady has a mania for stabbing men, women and children, attacking them unawares, and operated in St. Louis six months before he was finally detected. His system, which it might rightfully be called, was to pass a person and slash their clothing with a sharp knife which he carried in his hand. Seldom did he pierce the flesh.

Several cases were reported to the St. Louis police, and as they grew more frequent the detective department was dispatched to catch the person. Daily other reports reached police headquarters of persons being mysteriously stabbed, and instructions were given to every police officer and detective to catch the "stabber."

Finally, after six months of his work, Brady was caught and was sentenced to eighteen months in the St. Louis workhouse. On being released he left St. Louis, and shortly afterwards came to Sedalia, securing employment immediately at the Huckins hotel.

Brady worked unknown and unnoted at the hotel for several weeks, and according to the management was an ideal employee—faithful, industrious and honest. Several weeks ago, Lee T. Philpot, a United States secret service officer in St. Louis, came to Sedalia, searching for counterfeit money, and while at the hotel espied Brady.

Philpot informed the management who the man was, and the police department learned of the case also. At that time Mayor Babcock gave orders to have Brady leave town.

The police did not comply with the mayor's instructions at once, but watched Brady closely, and recently learned that he has been staying up late at nights and drinking quite a bit.

Anticipating that he would "break out" in time Assistant Chief of Police Card went to the hotel this morning and called for Brady. He "smelt a mouse," and became uneasy. When told what must be done, he complied readily, and agreed to depart at once.

Brady is small of stature, dark complexioned, with dark hair and eyes, and while on the street conducted himself self very quietly. He did not attempt any of his work in this city, but as a preventive the police ordered him to leave.

SERVED A "DUTCH LUNCH"

On Occasion of Frank Lorschach's Birthday Anniversary.

Frank Lorschach, of 325 West Cooper street, celebrated his fifty-fifth birthday anniversary Sunday, and in honor of the event a number of friends assembled at his home during the afternoon and evening to congratulate him.

Music, singing and other diversions entertained the guests until a late hour, when all departed for home, voting the affair an enjoyable event. A Dutch lunch was served during the evening.

The following attended: Franz Moerschel, Charles Pfeiffer, Sebastian

Urban, William Franken and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fritz, A. J. Knipp, John Gallagher, the shoe repairer, Mrs. Mary Imhauser, Misses Rosalie and Tony Hugenschmidt, Miss Rose Franken, Miss Tony Franken, Misses Tony and Rosalie Shellenbarger.

As birthday presents Mr. Lorschach received from his children a gold-headed umbrella, while his friend presented him with a beautiful meerscham pipe.

The Rev. A. A. Tanner, one of the Chautauqua attractions, gave a delightful talk on "The Abundant Life" at the First Congregational church Sunday morning.

GRIEF CAUSED A SUICIDE

WORRY OVER MOTHER'S DEATH MADE MR. J. H. SCHREIBER SHOOT HIMSELF.

REARED ON FARM AT GEORGETOWN

Brother, Joseph, Was Clerk at the Old Garrison House in Sedalia, and Later Managed Bates House, Indianapolis.

Kansas City, Mo., July 20.—Grief over the death of his mother caused John H. Schreiber to shoot himself yesterday morning at the home of his brother, L. A. Schreiber, 4632 Tracey avenue. He was 52 years old and unmarried. He had lived with his mother on a farm near Sedalia, Mo. She died last December. When he came to live with his brother last April, it was hoped that a change of surroundings would benefit him.

"I can't help it," he often explained to his brother. "Mother was all I had."

Physicians were consulted and he had taken treatment. Still he brooded over his loss. Even the children with whom he had often played could scarcely bring a smile to his face.

Yesterday morning, Mrs. Schreiber was sitting on the back porch talking with a visitor. She heard a revolver shot in the house.

"John is going to kill us," Mrs. Schreiber screamed as she ran out into the yard. "We must get away for I'm afraid he has gone crazy." On the sidewalk, they met a neighbor, who called the Woodland avenue police station. I. B. Hall, a patrolman, came. He found Schreiber's body on the floor in his room. He had fired a bullet through his right temple and died instantly.

Dr. George B. Thompson, county coroner, was notified and the body was removed to Freeman & Marshall's undertaking rooms.

After his brother's death Schreiber lived alone on the farm for a while. March 19 he was badly burned about the neck and chest while attempting to light a fire with coal oil. This undermined his health and added to the despondency of his bereavement. He attempted to assist his brother who is a restaurant keeper at 423 East Eleventh street, but was not strong enough. He had often spoken of taking his life, but relatives thought he was jesting.

Besides the brother in Kansas City, he left another brother, Joseph Schreiber, of San Francisco, Cal., and two sisters. The funeral is to be held tomorrow in Sedalia.

John H. Schreiber was well known in Sedalia. His parents lived for years on a farm near Georgetown. Joseph Schreiber, of San Francisco, was a clerk at the old Garrison house here many years ago, and later was manager of the Bates house at Indianapolis, Ind.

The deceased was a bachelor and twice attempted suicide at Georgetown, after which his brother came after him and took him to Kansas City. The remains will arrive at Georgetown on the Lexington branch train tomorrow morning and the interment will take place there.

Sent Them Out of Town.

Edward Akins, arrested Saturday evening for creating plain gold ring from Mrs. Jones, of North Sedalia, was given a stay to leave town by Police Judge Gresham today. A similar penalty was imposed on C. W. Barker, arrested for drunkenness.

BURNS UP U. G. ROBINSON

REV. PALMORE WOULD RATHER ASSOCIATE WITH THE SEVEN-YEAR ITCH.

EITHER THAT OR BUBONIC PLAGUE

Preferable to Associating With Superintendent of the Missouri Anti-Saloon League, Says Dr. Palmore.

St. Louis, Mo., July 20.—"I might associate with the seven-year itch, or the bubonic plague, but I do not care to have anything to do with U. G. Robinson," said Dr. W. B. Palmore Saturday afternoon, when asked if he had been notified before leaving for the national prohibition convention at Columbus, Ohio, of a hearing which U. G. Robinson, superintendent of the Missouri Antisaloon league, had called to permit a committee of ministers to decide whether he or the old advisory board of the league is in the right in the factional quarrel within the organization. The preachers appeared, but neither Dr. Palmore nor any of the proposed advisory board opposing Robinson showed up.

"I am a southerner, and the hot blood of the southland flows in my veins. If I had gone into such a conference I should have said some things to Robinson which he would probably have resented, and there might have been a physical mixup. That's the reason I do not propose to be drawn into any such conference," Dr. Palmore said.

"He is running wild with the organization and will sooner or later butt into a stone wall. He has tried to draw me into a newspaper controversy, but has not succeeded, and won't. A friend of mine came to me with Robinson's proposition and asked me what I meant to do about it. That was before I left for the convention. I told him that I would pay no attention to it. So he wrote Robinson, saying: 'I have interviewed Dr. Palmore about the proposed hearing, and he says he wants nothing to do with you.'"

Robinson put up two propositions to Dr. Palmore. One was that if the charges of usurpation of the office and effects of the league were sustained by the ministers' committee, Robinson was to resign and publicly apologize to Dr. Palmore. If the charges which were lodged against him by the old advisory committee which was deposed were not sustained, then Dr. Palmore, if he accepted the terms, was to apologize to Robinson, and the latter was to be left in peaceful possession of the league's effects.

Dr. Palmore said that the opposition to Robinson would probably constitute themselves the legal Antisaloon league of the state, and possibly contest the validity of the incorporation of the league by Robinson. If the incorporation is not annulled, Dr. Palmore, Rev. Carlos and others opposing Robinson, will have to adopt another name if they get up an organization.

When U. G. Robinson was told what Dr. Palmore said about attending his conference, he said: "I am sorry that the prohibition leaders are so afraid of the Missouri Antisaloon league." Robinson was asked to resign by the old advisory board, of which Dr. Palmore was a member, but retaliated by deposing the board and incorporating the league.

Dr. Palmore was the unanimous choice of the national prohibition convention for vice president. He received 418 votes for the nomination for the presidency out of 1028 delegates. On the first two ballots for president he led. Dr. Palmore, it is known, wanted the presidency, and had the endorsement of Missouri. He was put in nomination, however, by Kentucky.

He says the vote which he received is a good indication that the factional feeling growing out of the civil war is practically abated. Dr. Palmore said: "I am an ex-confederate soldier and fought for that side until the war closed. But my vote came from the east and all sections and the old G. A. R. men supported me as enthusiastically as if I had fought with them."

"PEEPING TOM" SKIPS OUT

Ira Henry Was Not in Police Court This Morning.

Ira Henry, a machinist, arrested by the police Saturday afternoon after an escapade during which he acquired the title of "Peeping Tom" left the city some time Saturday night, hence there was no prosecution in his case in police court this morning.

The authorities will make no effort to locate the man, as the complaining witnesses feel satisfied to have him remain away from Sedalia.

WAS GIVEN HIS LIBERTY

WHAT THE WARRENSBURG STAR SAID OF OPERATOR TAYLOR'S HEARING.

NO GROUND FOR HOLDING ACCUSED

There Was Never Any Foundation for the Report That Taylor Had Attempted Suicide at His Country Home.

Chas. Taylor, the Lamonte telegraph operator, who was arrested, charged with manslaughter in connection with the killing of eight persons in the Missouri Pacific wreck near Knobnoster, July 2, had a preliminary hearing Friday afternoon before Justice George W. Rayhill and was discharged.

This action was taken after hearing the testimony of Trainmaster Dennis and Superintendent Alexander, of the Missouri Pacific at Sedalia, the discharged train dispatcher, F. W. Strange, and that given by Taylor himself.

The verdict of the court was that there was no probable cause for believing that Taylor was guilty of any culpable negligence in connection with the wreck.

Justice Rayhill says if the proper party or parties, as he sees it, had been brought before him he would have held them for the circuit court.

Taylor stated that when the dispatcher called to give the order for train No. 3 he told him the train was in the west end of the yard and that if he got the order to the trainmen he would have to take it up there; that the dispatcher told him to take the order and hurry up; that if No. 12 came in No. 3 would think it was No. 10 and proceed to Knobnoster on the original order to meet No. 12 at that place.

"I rushed out of the station to deliver the order," said Taylor, "and met the flagman for No. 3 and gave him the order to deliver, but the train was pulling out and the flagman was left behind. I then reported the situation to the dispatcher."

Dispatcher Strange stated that Taylor took the order and didn't state that he could not reach the train crew until afterwards.

"As soon as the order was repeated," said Strange, "I gave No. 12 at Knobnoster an order to come on."

"While it is not a rule of the company," said Dispatcher Strange, "it is sane railroad for the conductor and engineer in charge of a train that is being held for another train, when they find that the time has exceeded the hour for meeting and the train has not made its appearance, to report at the telegraph station and ascertain the cause and seek further orders. Had the conductor on No. 3 took this precaution, the wreck would never occurred.

Conductor Williams, in charge of train No. 12, is coming in for his share of the blame for tampering with the telegraph keys at Knobnoster, causing the order for meeting No. 3 to be changed.

Had the original order stood, No. 12 would have waited at Knobnoster for No. 3, which only meant about seven minutes further delay for No. 12, and the accident would have been avoided. The Knobnoster office was supposed to have been closed, so far as the dispatcher and operator at Lamont were concerned.

It is again argued that had the Knobnoster station been open and a

WANT OHIO NEGRO VOTE

DEMOCRATS THINK THAT IT CAN BE SECURED FOR THEIR TICKET.

IT DEPENDS ON SENATOR FORAKER

If He Don't Get Into Taft Bandwagon Following Will Go to Bryan—No Southerner for National Chairman.

Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., July 20.—According to democratic leaders who have been to Fairview and conferred with Bryan, the ability of the democratic party to secure the negro vote of Ohio will depend largely upon the attitude of Senator Foraker. So long as he remains outside the republican breastworks, at least as regards Taft, the democrats feel assured of a large negro support in that state.

It is said that the chairmanship of the national committee will not go to a southern man, because of the attitude of southerners toward the negro, although Mr. Bryan thinks very highly of Ollie James, of Kentucky, and while his name was prominently considered for the place, the position taken by him some time ago in favor of the disfranchisement of the negro, made his appointment out of the question.

THEY GAVE BACK THE OIL

Windsor People Scooped It Up After a Katy Wreck.

The M. K. & T. is getting to be quite economical. At least that's what the people of Windsor think. Less than a fortnight ago the Katy suffered a freight wreck one-fourth of a mile south of Windsor, and included in the derailed cars was a tank of oil, which was emptied into gullies and ditches along the right of way by the company.

Inhabitants of Windsor espied the "loose" oil, and utilizing buckets, pans, kegs and other utensils, began carrying it away.

Reports of the action of the Windsor people reached company headquarters, and Sunday a secret service officer was dispatched to Windsor to have returned what oil had already been carried away.

NEW CLASS OF SPORTS

This Week a New Line of Athletics Begins—New York Won First.

London, July 20.—Almost an entirely new set of athletes take possession today of the dressing rooms of the stadium for the Olympic games. The weight throwers, cyclists and distance runners, having gone through their part of the program last week, have either taken their departure, entered for the Marathon race or become mere spectators. Daniels, of New York, won the first event today, the hundred meter swim.

FIVE SAILORS INJURED

Steam Pipe on Battleship Kearsage Burst While in Honolulu Harbor.

Honolulu, July 20.—By the bursting of a steam pipe on the forward starboard boiler on the battleship Kearsage of the Atlantic fleet, now in the harbor here, five of the crew have been injured seriously.

The accident occurred late Saturday, but the news did not become generally known until this morning. The fire was drawn after the accident and the steam plant of the vessel was disabled for nine hours.

FREING OF CARPENTER

CHARGED WITH THE MURDER OF SHELBY PORTER AT MARSHALL, MISSOURI.

OCCURRED ON DECEMBER 20, 1907

Defendant, Who Years Ago Played Ball in Sedalia, Has Been in Jail Continuously Since Fatal Shot Was Fired.

The Democrat-Sentinel on Sunday chronicled the acquittal at Marshall on Friday of Guy Carpenter, a former Sedalia ball player, on the charge of murder. Regarding the case the Marshall Democrat-News has the following:

In the criminal court, today, when the case of the state of Missouri vs. Guy Carpenter was called, the state dismissed the charge of murder for the killing of Shelby Porter on Friday night, Dec. 20, 1907, and the defendant was discharged by the court. This case was one of considerable importance and attracted much attention. A large number of witnesses were present, besides quite a number of interested spectators, in addition to about sixty regular and special jurors.

The defendant has been in jail for about seven months for the reason that the charge against him being for murder in the first degree, no bail could be granted by the court without a hearing.

The defendant was city jailer and policeman at the time of the shooting and claimed that he only shot Porter after Porter had shot at him, and was in the act of shooting at him the second time, and until he was forced to do so in order to prevent his own life from being taken.

The state has twice before continued the case when the same was called for trial.

The state was represented by J. F. Barbee, who was assisted by R. B. Ruff, while the defendant's attorneys were E. D. Martin and R. M. Reynolds.

When asked why the case was dismissed, the prosecuting attorney said that he thought best to dismiss it.

MISS HARKER HAS RESIGNED

Emil Zoernig Succeeds Her—T. A. Hurley Succeeds Emil.

Miss Florence Harker, teller for the Sedalia Trust company, resigned Saturday night, on account of ill health, and will leave shortly for Buffalo, N. Y. to make her home in future with her sister.

Emil Zoernig, bookkeeper for the company, has been promoted to the position of teller, and entered upon his duties this morning.

Thomas A. Hurley, one of Sedalia's most clever and efficient young men, today accepted the position made vacant by Mr. Zoernig's promotion.

Miss Harker has been connected with the Sedalia Trust company since its establishment in June, 1901, and prior to that time was connected with the Missouri Trust company for a period of six years.

TOOK SEVERAL STITCHES

in the Scalp of W. H. Horan, Injured in a Runaway.

W. H. Horan, son of Thomas Horan, a prominent farmer of the Hughesville neighborhood, was quite painfully injured in a runaway accident near the ice plant on West Main street today.

He was driving along the thoroughfare when an automobile crept up behind his horse. The animal became frightened and ran away, throwing Mr. Horan out. The buggy was partially demolished, the harness torn to pieces, and Mr. Horan sustained scalp and other wounds that required fourteen stitches at the hands of Dr. M. T. Collins.

The driver of the automobile is not known, but instead of being a "red devil," the machine was white in color.

William F. Vilas Stricken.

Madison, Wis., July 20.—William F. Vilas, former United States senator and member of President Cleveland's cabinet, today suffered a hemorrhage of the brain, and his condition is said to be serious.

THE "ENQUIRER" IS IN LINE.

Immediately following the nomination of Mr. Bryan at Denver, a number of republican newspapers stated that the distinguished democratic leader would not have the support of the Cincinnati Enquirer in the campaign that is now practically on.
Evidently the wish was father to the thought, as will be seen by the following editorial in Sunday's Enquirer.

For twelve years the phrase, "the enemy's country," has been a favorite expression in political circles, and since 1896 until this year it has correctly expressed the antipathy of the voters of the eastern states to the candidates and policies of the democratic party.

It no longer applies and the republican control of that great section is to be seriously challenged and strenuously contested by the democrats this year. The heart of the position is the state of New York, and not since Cleveland carried it in 1899 has there been such a battle for its electoral vote will be made in these next few months.

This is not 1896, with a thin line of New York democrats, without funds and facing the combined forces of a united republican party and a hostile democratic national administration, supplied with millions of money to purchase and with power to crush and ruin daring opponents that money could not buy.

This is not 1900, with such alliance still intact and the prestige of a successful foreign war; with bulging governmental pay rolls; with thousands of army, navy and civil appointments to reward active partisans and recompense campaign contributors. This is not 1904, with the most popular man in the United States heading the republican ticket, and the democratic radicals sulking

and deserting on account of the gold telegram and distrust of certain leaders.

New York state is no republican Gibraltar. The democrats know it and wise republicans politicians are doubting it. The last test of partisan strength was in 1906, and then every candidate on the republican ticket was defeated save Governor Hughes, and he was only saved by democratic votes. He was solidly supported by the state republican organization, vigorously aided by the national administration, polled all the votes both could command, and yet would have failed of election but for the democrats who opposed Mr.
Hearst. Has Governor Hughes by his administration strengthened the republican party in New York since 1906? Has the terrible money famine of 1907 and the resultant depression of trade bettered republican conditions in New York state or in any other state, since it was inaugurated?
Let the republicans consider these facts.

If farmers who are prosperous in Iowa, Wisconsin, Indiana, Kansas and Nebraska are weakening in republicanism and showing tendencies of affiliating with the democrats, what of the men out of employment in the industrial centers of New York? What of the hundreds of thousands of voters on half time or on quarter time or no time at all, with families short of everything they goes to make up civilized comforts?

Are they republicans this year?
With the metropolitan press and leading financiers for three or four years stoutly opposing policies of the republican administration, has this strengthened the party in New York?

We doubt it.
The democrats frequently blunder, but the results in November may prove that their managers make no mistake in storming "the enemy's country." Enemy's no longer, possibly. They have had no such chance since 1892, and then they won out.

DEATH IN THE CUP.

Dangers due to the dissemination of disease germs are now so well understood that it would seem only the most ignorant and indifferent could disregard them.

Yet there is evidence to an unpleasant degree going to show that many very excellent persons fail to give active approval to efforts directed to lessening the menace to public health involved in omission to deal properly with the sources of peril.

There should be especial keenness of determination to do everything possible to protect children; but according to recent allegation there is grave dereliction in this respect.

The consequence is that little ones are too often exposed to infection from disease germs and fall victims to sickness and resulting weakness that may follow them through life and prove detrimental to their welfare.

The Technical World deals with this subject, and has something to say that should command the careful attention of the serious-minded.

Starting on the proposition that the greatest achievement of science in the opening decade of the twentieth century is the awakening of the people to the fact that most human diseases are preventable, and a large proportion of early deaths avoidable, the Technical World seeks to make practical application of the knowledge. It says that at least 700,- 000 of the 1,500,000 deaths in the United States annually result from minute parasitic plants and animals gaining access to the body.

"These invisible foes wage a continuous warfare against both strong and weak, rich and poor," says the Technical World. "Civic duty, as well as self-preservation, demands that these destroyers should as far as possible be shut out of the human system."

Then there is presented the evidence on which the conclusions are based. This evidence tends to an unqualified condemnation of the use of the common drinking vessel on any occasion, whether in the school, in the church or at home, and is derived from three sources:

First, the frequent presence of disease-producing bacteria in the mouth; second, the detection of pathogenic germs on the public cups, and, third, the discovery that where a number of persons drank from a cup previously used by the sick, some of them became ill.

There follow some statements of actual tests, the details of which are reveling as an exhibition of the ease and extent to which the common drinking vessel can be made the means of circulating dangerous seeds of disease.

It suffices to say that a sample instance was a glass cup used for nine days in a public school. At the beginning the cup was perfectly clean and clear. At the end of nine days the cup was broken into fragments and submitted to microscopic examination. The germs were there by thousands.

cision of the republican primary election,
August 4, 1908.

Criteria were present on every square inch of the glass," says the report.
And it was from that cup, swarming with the seeds of disease, that scores of children had been drinking for the nine days.

Could there be any more convincing object lesson as to the risk those young lives ran? Modern science teaches unqualified, even if unwell-come, truth, and the common sense of parents, guardians and public officials should make the application.

"Joe" Sailer's New Paper

The Democrat-Sentinel has received copies of "Joe" Sailer's Jefferson City Post, the new republican afternoon paper. It is a six-column, four-page sheet, and is as full of news as an egg is of meat. It starts out with plenty of "ads," showing the clever handiwork of "Joe's" brother, "Sl," in the composition, and with a liberal patronage it ought to fare better than did its republican predecessors. Here's to the enterprise anyhow, in all except politics.

St. Paul, Minn., July 20.—The balloon race for the Goodrich trophy and the aerial championship of the world, which started at Lexington Park in this city Saturday evening, was a disappointment closely approaching a fizzle. So far as long and swift flight is concerned the affair was an utter failure.

The Chicago, piloted by C. A.
Cerey, of Chicago, won the contest, his balloon traveling a distance of seventy-three miles in an air line from St. Paul.

The Pommern, Dr. Julian Thomas, of New York, pilot, was the last balloon to land, coming down Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock near Warsaw, Minn., about fifty-two miles from the starting point.

The Chicago, the largest balloon in the race, came down at noon Sunday near Blooming Prairie, Minn., seventy-three miles south of St. Paul on the Milwaukee road. No details of the landing were received here.

Lieut. J. G. Bennett, pilot of the King Edward, which landed at 7:45
Saturday night at Hampton, Minn., on his return to St. Paul Sunday, declined the story telephoned here Saturday that his balloon had caught in telephone wires.

Capt. P. S. Hudson, pilot of the balloon America, which landed at 8:15
Saturday evening six miles south of Owatonna, Minn., eighty miles south of here, returned to St. Paul Sunday with his assistant, Horace B. Wild, of Chicago. The landing of the America was effected without difficulty in a meadow, six miles from Owatonna.
Hudson tripped and sprained his ankle.

There were two main reasons for the unsatisfactory outcome of the aerial tournament. A. Leo Stevens, director of the race, in explaining the failure of the aeronauts to sail greater distances than they accomplished, said that the lifting power of the gas was not as great as they had counted on, and that consequently the balloons were unable to carry near the amount of ballast necessary for a long flight.

Aeronauts have found that the lifting capacity of gas used for his purpose should be 44 pounds for 1,000 cubic feet. The "lift" of the gas in this instance was only 27 pounds. In order to get the balloons started at all it was necessary to throw out ballast to the danger point.

hundred Eagles, making noise enough for several thousand ordinary humans, arrived here today and took escorted them to their roosts, preparatory to the opening of the state

The three days following will be crowded with sports and entertainments of every known variety, for which the Missoula aerie has raised a fund of over $5,000.

CABRERA A CONTRIBUTOR?

No Proof of Claim That He Put Up $10,000 for Roosevelt.

New York, July 20.—No information can be obtained from official sources regarding the statement printed in Mexico City to the effect that President Cabrera, of Guatemala, contributed $10,000 to President Roosevelt's campaign fund in 1904. Those who are familiar with the fund, however, said they know nothing of any such contribution.

A Washington dispatch says: "No official of the administration is willing to be drawn into a discussion of the statement published in the city of Mexico over the signature of Dr. Herman Frowe, formerly a resident of Guatemala, charging that the contribution had been made by President Cabrera to the republican campaign fund in 1904, and declaring that Cabrera is favoring American residents to the exclusion of those of other nationalities."

CRUSADE AGAINST BAD EGGS

Board of Health Unpopular With Farmers' Wives.

Tepeka, Kas., July 20.—Not long ago Dr. Crumline, secretary of the state board of health, served notice that it was unlawful for farmer women to sell rotten eggs.

It seems that this notice did not reach all of them. Many of them are going right ahead marketing bad eggs. The field inspectors are now spreading the information by tacking up this sign on every rural store:

"It is unlawful to sell bad eggs." All sorts of rumblings are heard from the rural communities, but Dr. Crumline says it is the law and will be enforced.

A CLINTON WORD ARTIST

ADVERTISEMENT FOR A COLORED CELEBRATION ON AUGUST 4TH.

PICK UP GOLDEN STONE OF LIBERTY

"In the Midst of This Grand Escorted There Will Be a Carriage of Ladies Drawn by the Power of Horses."

Clinton, Mo., July 20.—The colored people of Clinton are preparing for a celebration on August 4. They have distributed a circular which is the work of a great word artist. Here is part of it:

Impressive! Glorious! Wonderful! August 4 and 5, Clinton, Mo.

The greatest conglomeration of the Ethiopian race ever assembled in one place will occur on August 4 and 5, when the colored people of Clinton, Henry county, and the western part of Missouri will meet in Clinton to celebrate the anniversary of the promise of Lincoln to free the slaves from their bondage.

Two days of marvelous pleasure. Parade of wonderful magnitude!

The procession will start from the Second Baptist church at 11:30 a. m., and will parade south down the east side; a moment's halt in an eligible form of lubricity at Jefferson street; west to Washington street; north to Franklin street; west to the grounds.

In the midst of this grand escorted there will be a carriage of ladies drawn by the power of four or six white horses. It will, without a doubt, be the grandest procession that ever marched through the town of Clinton by the colored people, and when we look back and pick up the golden stone of liberty it makes us invite one and all. We guarantee equal rights to all and special privileges to none. Everybody come out on this glorious day and enjoy yourselves.

In the midst of this Magna Charta, we, the amalgamated people of Divine Deity, take pleasure, not from an egotistical standpoint, but with care, courtesy and profound ability. This will be one grand, glorious, glittering, gorgeous pageantry of beauty such as has never before been seen in a parade in Clinton.

DISEASE IN CRACKED CUPS

An Investigation in Washington Discloses a New Danger.

Washington, July 20.—Beware of the cracked mug in the "quick lunch" room. In the cracks may lurk thousands of germs that produce disease and death.

The experts in the bureau of chemistry, agricultural department, have sent out this warning. Their action followed an investigation which developed facts of the highest importance to the patrons of the cheap lunch room.

Recently the health department had investigated the sanitary condition of the hotels and restaurants of the city. As a result owners of twelve restaurants and lunch rooms have been arrested for violating the health laws. The investigation of the cracked china of lunch rooms was brought about by a Washington newspaper.

QUEBEC TERCENTENARY

WILL BE COMMENCED THIS WEEK WITH A GRAND CELEBRATION.

THOUSANDS OF VISITORS THERE

Greatest Historical Exhibition of Modern Times—Prince of Wales Is Expected to Arrive on Wednesday.

Quebec, July 20.—Every boat and train into Quebec today brought immense additions to the vast throng already congregated here to witness the stupendous pageant with which the city will this week commemorate its tercentenary. Not in its long history of 300 years has the ancient town on the St. Lawrence entertained so great a crowd. All is in readiness for the biggest historical exhibition of modern times, and with the official reception tomorrow to the French, English and American warships and the distinguished guests, the week's festivities will be fairly inaugurated. The Prince of Wales, now speeding across the Atlantic on the famous mystery ship, the British cruiser Indomitable, will arrive Wednesday afternoon, and his reception will bespeak the regard in which all Canadians hold their future king. Vice President Fairbanks will be among the distinguished men who will greet the prince and bid him welcome to the new world.

Heralds clad in all the finery of a bygone age, and mounted on dashing steeds, cantered through the streets of Quebec today, and men on the watch shouted out announcements to the crowd of events to come.

Practically all of the hotel accommodations of Quebec were engaged far in advance by parties of distinguished men and women from other lands, and the rank and file of the visitors will be accommodated in the tent cities which have sprung up as if by magic on the heights of Quebec and in other places in and near the city. Hundreds of private residences have been opened to the visitors and all the religious and educational institutions of Quebec and Levis have transformed their class rooms and dormitories into sleeping rooms which will accommodate thousands. Temporary restaurants and lunch rooms have been established by scores, and the provisioning of the thousands is not considered to be a matter for apprehension.

While the gathering of such a crowd in so small a city is bound to result in some discomforts for the visitors, the great spectacle will be well worth it. There is no such other stage in the world for dramatic pageantry as the Plains of Abraham, where the grandeur of the natural scenery defies description, and where the 20,000 spectators in the grand stand face the St. Lawrence, 300 feet below, at the point where Wolfe's Highlanders clambered up the heights.

From the foot of his statue, where stands for all time the bronze figure of the great Champlain, stepping ashore, as it were, as he did so long ago, to take possession of his new country of the west, the Prince of Wales, Vice President Fairbanks and other illustrious guests will see in procession before them all the great men and women who have made this country what it is, and later on will see, as in a dream, the living, moving pictures of the great events of these early days.

On the banks of that river when the long rays of the sun stretch over the plains, shall be seen again, as Cartier saw nearly 400 years ago, a cluster of wigwags set beneath the trees. Away on the broad waters of the river many feet below will come the little boats with Cartier and his crew, their names still preserved and their descendants impersonating them.

Then the spectators will be transported in their dreams to the court of France, the gardens of Fontainebleau, and high on a white charger, trapped with cloth of gold, rides the proud figure of Francis I., as they see him in pictures painted when he lived and surrounded by his court.

Then back again to the little old village of Stadacona to see Champlain as he brings his girl wife to the new country.

So on through many scenes, and then at last, the armies of two brave nations, side by side in a parade of honor, the scarlet and gold of the British and the blue and white of the French, headed by four noble generals—Montcalm and Wolfe, Levis and Murray. The flags wave, the drums rattle, the trumpets blare, the dream of the past is over and only the wonder of the present and the infinite possibilities of the future remain.

No descendants either of Major General James Wolfe or of the Marquis de Montcalm remain to take part in the ceremonies in the ancient capital, and as for Samuel de Champlain, there are none of his descendants known to be in existence.

These are the three principal figures of the demonstration whose names will be linked for all time with the founding of Quebec and the most notable battles.

General Wolfe, as history informs us, died unmarried, though his action while in the sloop of war before landing for his last fight, would tend to show that he was betrothed to a Miss Lowther. Seated in the cabin by the side of his former schoolfellow, Commanded John Jarvis, afterward the earl of Vincent, he told the latter that he expected to fall in the battle of the next day, "and, taking from his bosom a miniature of Miss Lowther, he gave it to him with the request that he would return it to her should the presentment prove true." His request was faithfully carried out by his friend and schoolmate, Wolfe left no family and he sleeps a brave warrior's sleep, entombed by the side of his father and mother in the chapel of the ancient palace of Greenwich.

As is well known, his chivalrous opponent, the Marquis de Montcalm, found a soldier's grave beneath the chapel of the Ursuline convent in Quebec in an excavation made by the bursting of a shell from one of the British men of war bombarding the city during Wolfe's attack on the plains. King Louis XV., in recognition of Montcalm's splendid services at Ticonderoga, and the defense of Quebec, bestowed a pension of $20,000 a year on his widow and children, which was, strange to say, continued to them, and the only pension left by the leaders of the revolution.

About fifteen years ago the press of Paris announced the death at Montpelier of the last descendant of the Marquis de Montcalm, who was prominent in society and one of the most popular members of the Union club of Paris. He left no children, but merely an adopted son of the name of St. Maurice, who married a Corsican lady of the name of Mlle. Pozzo de Borgo.

There are alleged to be descendants of Generals de Levis and Murray, who fought in the battle of St. Foye. The former was a cadet of the French and Spanish dual houses of Levis-Mirepoix, and which claim descent from Levi, the son of Jacob.

GRIEF CAUSED HER SUICIDE

Death of a Missouri Man Followed by His Wife's Death.

Princeton, Mo., July 20.—Crazed with grief over the accidental death of her husband, Enoch D. Emery, who fell from a load of hay last week, Mrs. Emery committed suicide Saturday by jumping into an abandoned well at the family home near Cainsville, ten miles west of this city.

She had tried to hang herself in the smokehouse, but the rope broke and she was picked up and carried into the house by relatives, who kept a close watch on her for several hours. Finally she eluded them and ran from the house, plunging into an old well in an adjoining pasture. The body was not rescued for several hours.

KILLED THREE CHILDREN

After Poisoning and Strangling, Mother Tried Suicide.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 20.—Mrs. Isabella Sahlen fed her three small children poison Saturday and then strangled each with a handkerchief. Then she sent to the grocery store for more poison, which she took herself. The three children were dead and the mother was in a dangerous condition when aid came.

Mrs. Sahlen told the police that a sister-in-law caused her much domestic unhappiness. When Mrs. Sahlen's neighbor, a woman, tried to restrain her she attacked her with a bread knife. The police found a baby, 15 months old, dead in his go-cart, with a handkerchief stuffed in his throat. The other children were 3 and 5 years old.

DEATH TO THE PESKY FLY

HOW TO OBTAIN RELIEF FROM INSECTS THAT ARE ALWAYS PRESENT.

NEW YORK HEALTH DEPARTMENT

Offer Some Suggestions That May Be Appreciated By the Good Housewife, of Whom There Are Many in Sedalia.

Do the flies bother you? Then follow the advice given in these suggestions of the New York health department:

Do not allow decaying material of any character to accumulate on or near your premises.

Screen all food.

All refuse which tends in any way to fermentation, such as bedding straw, paper waste and vegetable matter should be disposed of or covered with lime or kerosene oil.

Keep all receptacles for garbage carefully covered and the cans cleaned or sprinkled with lime or oil.

Pour kerosene into the drains.

See that your sewage system is in good order; that it does not leak, is up-to-date and not exposed to flies.

Cover food after a meal. Burn or bury all table refuse.

Screen all food exposed for sale.

Screen all windows and doors, especially the kitchen and dining room.

Burn pyrethrum powder in the house to kill flies.

Keep flies away from the sick, especially those ill with contagious diseases. Kill every fly that strays into the sick room. His body is covered with disease germs.

By following these suggestions relief from the pest will be afforded and health preserved.

War Against Consumption.

All nations are endeavoring to check the ravages of consumption, the "white plague" that claims so many victims each year. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds perfectly, and you are in no danger of consumption. Do not risk your health by taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar is safe and certain in results. Arlington Pharmacy.

Went to Wisconsin to Investigate.

The writer of this article has made personal investigations and can vouch for the following:

During a trip to Wisconsin and by reason of his vacation visiting the Sanitarium at Waukesha, he was attracted by a conversation between a nurse and a patient, who apparently was all packed up ready to leave. The nurse was trying to persuade him to try Muco-Solvent for a bad case of quinsy sore throat, and the patient, after some persuasion, consented, with the result that, to the writer's personal knowledge, the patient prolonged his stay and went away cured, not neglecting, however, to take a dozen packages with him. Further inquiry developed the fact that in the towns of Madison and Grantsburg, all in Wisconsin, Muco-Solvent had most effectively stamped out the diphtheria plague. In Grantsburg, for instance, out of its 250 people, diphtheria claimed as its victims 53 people. Muco-Solvent was then employed, and not another death took place.

At Polar, Wis., whole families died; recoveries were rare exceptions. The use of Muco-Solvent immediately put an end to the fatalities. In the lumber camps of the north, they would as soon think of being without Muco-Solvent as food or water. It is used by them for all acute throat troubles—quinsy, scarlet fever, tonsillitis, etc., and as an antiseptic in the camps.

The discovery that common Epsom salts was a most powerful anaesthetic (made by a member of the Rockefeller Institute), and that the most dangerous operation could be performed with its assistance, comes close upon the heels of the startling fact that ordinary Muco-Solvent is tremendously effective as a remedial agent for maladies and disturbances for which at first it was not used. And what is more, that the public can have access to it without the physician's aid. Unquestionably as a preventive for diphtheria, scarlet fever, croup or whooping cough, quinsy, sore throat, its supremacy will not be questioned, and now comes the startling discovery that it is equally effective for all catarrhal conditions—catarrh of the stomach, head, intestines—as a very effective douche for uterine difficulties, as a mouth wash or spray preventive of typhoid, measles, etc., for cuts or burns, sores or skin diseases of most character (not the dry form of eczema, however).

If a thing is good, it doesn't always require much advertising, as we understand druggists are supplying themselves with it generally throughout the United States, as well as Canada and Australia. We believe the time is not far when the use of it will exterminate completely diphtheria, croup, etc. It can be obtained at Dan Wilcox's, so mothers who lose children from croup, etc., have only themselves to blame for their neglect if they do not keep it on hand.

A STRIKE DECLARED OFF

BELL TELEPHONE CO. WON OUT AFTER SIEGE OF TWENTY-THREE MONTHS.

ELECTRICAL WORKERS LOST FIGHT

They Demanded Increase of Wages and Shorter Hours, but Met With Refusal.—The Union Was Not Recognized.

Springfield, Mo., July 20.—R. M. Sutton, local financial secretary of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, who resides at 328 New street, has received a telegram from W. H. Coleman, of Atchison, Kan., secretary-treasurer of the district council of the Fifth district, saying:

"Referendum vote favorable for calling strike off. Official returns by mail. Notify men company is fair." This ends one of the longest strikes in this section of the country. The strike was started twenty-three months ago against the Missouri and Kansas Telephone Co. by the electrical union. The union has lost the strike and the men are at liberty to go to work for the company now if their services are asked for.

The strike was for increased wages and shorter hours. When the men struck they were being paid $2.50 for nine hours' work. They asked for $2.75 for eight hours. This was refused and the strike followed. Recognition of the union did not enter into the question. The company has always refused to do this and the men did not ask it.

Nineteen men here went out on the strike. Since then all have left the city but five. The strike was quite lively in its early stages and several quite lively fights took place. Firearms were used by one or the other side in a few cases, and the police were kept more or less busy.

It has been evident for some time that the strike which affected the entire states of Missouri and Kansas was lost. Some of the electrical workers wanted to go back to work and so a convention was called in Kansas City to discuss the matter. Only fourteen delegates were present. Ten of them voted to call the strike off and refer the matter directly to the men for approval. The vote has just been taken and the action of the Kansas City convention is approved.

MISSOURIAN EMPTIES HIS REVOLVER IN A CROWDED SLEEPER.

THE PASSENGERS FLEE IN A PANIC

After a Struggle, in Which He Is Knocked Unconscious, George Parker Is Overpowered By a Sheriff.

Danville, Ill., July 20.—George Parker, of Bismarck, Mo., on the way to Detroit, ran amuck on Wabash passenger train No. 2 between Decatur and Danville Sunday night, emptying his revolver in the sleeper, until overpowered by Sheriff W. S. Helmick, of this city, who was a passenger.

Parker was occupying one of the upper berths. Suddenly the passengers were startled by a revolver shot, followed by others in quick succession.

The terrified passengers rushed from their berths, followed by Parker, who was met at the coach door by Sheriff Helmick, who had been an occupant of the car ahead.

Parker leveled his gun on the officer, but with a quick jump Helmick dodged and grappled the man.

A terrific struggle in the vestibule followed, which ended when the officer knocked Parker senseless with a blow from his own gun, which he had managed to draw.

Parker was brought to Danville and lodged in jail.

Hillsburg Tragedy Follows Quarrel Over Card Game.

Frankfort, Ind., July 20.—Early Sunday the town of Hillsburg, near here, was thrown into a turore of excitement by a murder and suicide.

Clarence Jones, a young business man, shot and killed Claude Pruitt, a young and well known farmer, and then almost immediately afterwards sent a bullet from the same revolver into his own brain.

The shooting is believed to have been a result of a quarrel over a game of cards.

KILLED WIFE AND A MAN

OKLAHOMA BARBER SLAYS COUPLE WHEN HE FOUND THEM TOGETHER IN ROOM.

CAME TO HIS HOME UNEXPECTEDLY

Sees Both in Apartment, Shoots Way Into House and Takes Revenge—Calmly Says Unwritten Law Will Acquitt Him.

El Reno, Ok., July 20.—James Leusby shot and killed his wife and W. T. Woods in Leusby's home here Sunday morning. Leusby is a barber, and for some months has been working in Claremore, Ok., making weekly trips home, usually on Sunday.

Saturday night Leusby came to El Reno as usual, but did not go home. He stayed at the house of a friend and Sunday morning about 6 o'clock went to his home, where he says he saw his wife and Woods in a room. Leusby was armed with a revolver and when he was prevented from effecting entrance to the room in which were his wife and Woods, he fired through the door.

The first shot struck Woods and he fell to the floor. Leusby then forced the door and fired two shots into Wood's body.

In the meantime Mrs. Leusby had escaped. Leusby then started away, but seeing his wife returning, waited until she had entered the house, then stepped to the door and shot her. The ball penetrated her heart, killing her instantly.

Woods was dead when neighbors, attracted by the shots, ran to the house. Leusby walked downtown and gave himself up to the officers. He was not in the least excited and calmly told of the whole affair, declaring the unwritten law would acquit him. Leusby is 35 years old, and is Mrs. Leusby's second husband. They had no children. Woods was 25 years old, and unmarried. He was employed in a grocery store. Leusby was arrested.

FAMILY OF 11, $10 A WEEK

GOOD MANAGEMENT ENABLES MOTHER TO CARE FOR HUNGRY BROOD.

VERY CAREFUL ABOUT HER BUYING

Stale Bread Better and Cheaper Than Fresh—Nourishment in Soups—Lots of Steak for Ten Cents.

St. Louis, Mo., July 20.—Housewives who are struggling to make both ends meet on a weekly allowance of $25 or $50 these days of oppression by the beef trust and the farmers' trust might get some hints that would help them from Mrs. Anton Domogalla, of 1212 Clinton street, who houses, clothes, feeds and educates a family of eleven persons on $10 a week and less.

It is only when she is lucky that she has $10 a week. Often the sum is only $5 and $8 a week. But, however little it is, she manages to pay the rent promptly, she has never been behind with it yet, and she manages to feed each one of the eleven hungry mouths three times a day. Of course, it is a struggle, she admits that, and she has to do a great deal of close figuring and searching among the market stalls for things that are especially low-priced.

"Well, sir, I really can't tell you just how I do it," she said to a reporter, when asked to tell for the benefit of other housewives how she manages to get through the week with only $10. "I couldn't do it, of course, if I just went out and bought at haphazard, or if I ran a bill at a grocery store. In that case my $10 would melt away before the week had fairly begun.

"It takes a lot of figuring and good management, if I do say it myself. I have to study and study. There are some things that you can spend a lot of money for that haven't much nutriment after you get them.

Now, there's bread. Some people think that all the bread is alike. They pay 5 cents a loaf for it and they think they are doing the best they can, and they grumble because they have no money left at the end of the week. But bread at 5 cents a loaf is new bread and it isn't half as good or wholesome as bread that bakers call stale or dry.

"It is bread that has been on hand for a little while and it is cheaper than new bread and goes farther. I get two loaves of that for 5 cents. And we eat a lot of rye bread, which is cheaper yet and better for the children.

"Of course, we don't have meat three times a day, nor even once every day, for that matter. I am always glad when Friday comes, for the children don't expect meat on that day. We are Catholics and don't eat meat on Friday.

"But you know a woman can waste her whole $10 a week on meat if she isn't careful. I try and have meat once a day at least. One day it's a 10-cent soup bone. You'd be surprised how big a bone and much meat on it you can get for 10 cents, if you only know where to go and how to go after it. How do I do it?

"Well, the butchers at the market are mighty good to folks like me, when they know they have little money and have to make it go as far as possible. I look around. I don't take the first soup bone they show me. I go from one stall to another, and I pick out a bone with a lot of marrow in it and a lot of meat on it.

And then we have meat soup, with potatoes and rice in it, and some plain bread with it, and that's a good meal.

"Then, I can get a whole lot of steak for 10 cents, too. Enough to go around. Yes, sir, plenty. And it's just as good meat as the richer folks pay 25 cents for, and just as much, too. Now, today we had bread and coffee for breakfast, and bread and coffee for dinner, and tonight we will have bread and coffee with potato pancakes for a change.

"This living on $10 a week is all a question of how you buy. There are lots of low-priced vegetables and other things, if you know how to buy and make a study of saving.

"The thing that bothers me most is the rent. It is $10 a month, and that we have to pay. I have never made the landlord wait for it yet. It is always ready for him when it is due. And the matter of clothing bothers me, too.

"My boy, Walter, 16 years old, is in need of shoes now. He can not go out to look for work because his shoes are worn out. I will have to get him a new pair some way. We manage to dress clean and tidy. Celico is only 3½ cents a yard and it makes a nice dress. There is no school tax to pay now and that helps me some. During the school term I have to pay 50 cents a month for the Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good," and Doctor Pierce's medicines well exemplify this and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands of people who "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest, hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrap—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for women's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve it is unequalled. It won't satisfy those who want "booze," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are never afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never equaled.

The Domogalla family consists of the father and mother and nine children, the eldest a young man of 23, who works in a bottling factory and earns $10 a week when he has a full week's work. But nearly every week he loses a day or two. The father is a plumber's helper and earns $3 a day when he works, but since the hard times began he has worked only a day or two a week, and sometimes not at all. This is the only income of the family. There is a boy of 16, who has been unable to find work, although his mother has gone around with him and sought it.

This recipe is highly recommended by one of our correspondents; try it for dessert tomorrow.

Pour into mold and when cold garnish with candied cherries. Serve with whipped cream or any good pudding sauce. JELLO is sold by all grocers at 10c per package.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that straightens the stored limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient that has perfected a dependable prescription. Without which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfect, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I succeeded in treating many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, I can cure all curable cases of this heretofore most dreaded disease. These cases are granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

AMATEUR PENCIL PUSHERS

Twelfth Annual Convention at Milwaukee, Wis.

Milwaukee, Wis., July 20.—Amateur editors, writers, publishers, authors and artists of North America, who wield pens or pound typewriters for sheer love of the game and not for filthy lucre, are gathered in Milwaukee today at the opening session of the twelfth annual convention of the United Amateur Press Association of America.

Today's program was commenced with an oratorical outburst by the members and will conclude this evening with the presentation of a playlet written by one of the amateur playwrights of the organization. Additional sessions will be held tomorrow and Wednesday.

This is the second national gathering of amateur scribes in Milwaukee this month, the National Amateur Press association having convened here about two weeks ago. The two organizations are deadly rivals and the members are not on speaking terms with each other.

A NATIONAL CONVENTION

OF THE DISCIPLES OF DR. ZAMENHOF'S NEW UNIVERSAL LANGUAGE.

IN SESSION AT CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y.

Not in Many Years Has This Center of Learning Entertained Such an Enthusiastic Gathering as Today's.

Chautauqua, N. Y., July 20.—Karaj, samideho! Vivu, Esperanto! Vivu, Zamenhof! Vivu, la Nacia Esperanto Kunveno!

Freely translated, this means that the disciples of Dr. Zamenhof's new universal language, Esperanto, which is alleged to embrace all the virtues of all other languages and the faults of none, are gathered in Chautauqua today for their first national convention and that they are glad to see each other. Karaj, samideho—the same meaning, Shake, brother of the same idea!

Not in many years has this center of learning entertained such an enthusiastic gathering as today's assemblage of Esperantists. Chattering volubly in a language that sounds like a cross between Greek and Cretan to the uninitiated listener, but which, nevertheless, has a musical and pleasing tang, the followers of Zamenhof, the Russian Pole, are confident that the universal language will soon accomplish its mission. Thus the wrong inflicted upon humanity by the ambitious builders of the tower of Babel will be undone and all nations joined together by the bonds of a universal language, will settle their differences with words instead of war. Vivu Esperanto!

The feature of today's session was the raising of the Esperanto flag, which was accomplished with much ceremony and a great flow of Esperanto oratory. A concert, in which Esperanto songs will be sung, will be held this evening.

The convention will continue through tomorrow, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Systems of instruction will be offered for those who have not yet thoroughly mastered the language. The speakers and instructors on the program include leading educators in the United States, Canada and Mexico.

An attempt will be made to secure next year's International Esperanto congress for this country. This year's international congress, the fourth, will be held in Dresden, Germany, beginning August 15, and will be attended by many Americans. The convention last year was held in Cambridge, England, and enlisted the cooperation of many great English educators.

It is stated that Gen. Wood has recommended that the military officials at Washington give official recognition to the new international language and has urged that a delegate be sent to the Dresden convention. United States consuls at Dresden and Geneva have also made reports urging the same action.

THREE NEGROES ARE LYNCHED

One a Preacher, Charged With Incendiarism.

Jonesville, La., July 20.—Three negroes, one of them a preacher, Arthur Godlin, were lynched by a mob here Sunday morning, following the burning of the only remaining cotton gin in this section.

The whites charge that the fire was caused by the incendiary preaching of a negro named Arthur Godlin, who has had the town of Harrisonburg upset for a week, prophesying the coming of the world's end, and asserting that he was the Messiah. He took up the same work here causing several negroes to quit work and exciting the other blacks in town.

Among Godlin's converts were Miller Gaines and Sam Gaines. It is charged that the three fired the gin of Capt. Swayze and prophesied the speedy end of his and Edwin Hodges' success and existence.

When arrested Godlin fought desperately with a chair and was shot in the leg. They were locked up, and Sunday morning found hanging to a pecan tree.

GEORGIAN WHO INTRODUCED ANTI-COSMETIC BILL ASKS FOR PROTECTION.

THREATS POUR IN BY EVERY MAIL

Now He's Sorry He Mentioned Pads and Powder Puffs, but Pride Holds Him on Firing Line and He Stands Pat.

Atlanta, Ga., July 20.—Representative George Glenn, of Whitfield county, who introduced the bill to prevent women from entrapping men into marriage by aids to beauty which are easily purchasable in drug stores and dry goods houses, has made an appeal to the house of representatives for protection against irate women who are not in favor of the bill. In his appeal he declares that he introduced the bill at the earnest request of a bachelor from Talbot county, and has since regretted his step, although he intends to press his bill to the bitter end.

Mr. Glenn says that ever since its introduction he has been receiving letters from angered women, individuals and heads of feminine organizations.

In conclusion Mr. Glenn declared that it was the purpose of his bill "that men be furnished with facts, not with figures, remembering well the immortal words of Bill Shakespeare when he said 'that beauty adorned is adorned the most,' for man must and shall be protected from women as long as I am a member of this house."

MAN FROM CASS COUNTY

IS IN JAIL IN CLERMONT COUNTY, OHIO, HELD AS A MURDER SUSPECT.

A CONFESSION MADE BY JOHN HILL

Oklahoman Asserts That Edward Wilson, Now Behind the Bars, Was in the Business of Murdering Rich Men.

Cincinnati, July 20.—Edward Wilson, who says his home is in Dayton, Cass county, Missouri, who is being held in the Clermont county jail on the charge of torturing George Washington Good, a hermit, until he revealed the hiding place of $50,000, and then murdering him, is many times a murderer, if the confession of John Hill, who was brought back from Oklahoma Saturday, is true.

"I started for North Dakota June 6, expecting to obtain employment in the wheat fields," said Hill, "and at Seymour, Ind., I fell in with Wilson, whom I had never met before. When I told Wilson where I was going he told me I was foolish for doing such work and that there was a much quicker way to get money.

"Wilson said that he had killed and robbed numerous rich men in Missouri and Indiana and had never been suspected. He then asked me if I knew of any rich men who lived in the country near Cincinnati and kept money about them.

"I told him that I did and he suggested that we go out on an expedition together. It was agreed between us that I was to point out the places and Wilson was to commit the murder, if necessary, and give me one-third of the booty.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

THE M. K. & T. IS PREPARING TO HANDLE BIG STOCK SHIPMENTS.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

The M. K. & T. railroad at Bartlesville, Ok., is increasing its cattle shipping facilities along the Osage nation line in order to accommodate the big movement of cattle that is now setting in.

Ledbetter & White have 7,000 head of cattle in one big pasture in the Osage nation, and there are dozens of other cattlemen who are about ready to ship.

The railroad is going after the business by erecting special loading stations along the line, so that the cattle will not have to be driven long distances to loading points.

Katy Engineer Going Some.

A former Sedalia engineer, who is now running out of Hannibal on the Katy, was written of as follows in the Moberly Democrat of Sunday:

It is said that when Gus Hestler was in Columbus, Ohio, recently attending the national convention of the B. of L. E., he changed his patent leathers twice a day and put on more style than anybody.

It was a common thing for him to place an order for a three-dollar steak and mushroom trimmings—and when it came to hats he was to utterly too-too.

Just as a souvenir of the occasion he is alleged to have brought back with him a nine-dollar straw headpiece—a regular beauty.

Paid Strike Benefits.

Edward L. Zoellig on Sunday paid out $872.75 in strike benefits to forty-three members of local lodge No. 97, Brotherhood of Railway Carmen of America, for the last seventeen days of June.

The married men are paid $35 a month by the grand lodge and the single men $25 a month, there being two pay days each month.

The men have been on strike several weeks against the piece work system adopted at the Missouri Pacific shops, and they claim to be as confident today of ultimate success as they were the day they laid down their tools and walked out.

Further Honors for Mr. Whitney.

C. E. Whitney, general chairman of the O. R. C. general adjustment committee on the M. K. & T. railway system, returned last night from Cedar Rapids, Ia. where he received the appointment as a member of the insurance committee in the order, to fill the unexpired term of William Henry Budd, of Chicago, resigned.

Mr. Whitney was also elected a member of the board of directors, as well as made a grand officer of the organization.

He will continue service with the O. R. C. on the Katy, however, in addition he has made a splendid record.

A Former Sedalian Quoted.

Frederick A. Wann, many years ago with the M. K. & T. in Sedalia, but now general traffic manager of the San Pedro, says:

"Passenger travel over our road is keeping up well, and our freight business has increased 20 per cent this year over that of last. Our east bound business is far ahead of that done last year, and out of 29,000 cars of oranges shipped east we got about 16 per cent."

Meeting of Section Foremen.

Twenty-four section foremen employed on the M. K. & T. within a radius of fifty miles of Sedalia, from the north end, south end and High line, had a conference with Supt. N. J. Finney at his office Sunday, with a view to the betterment of their respective sections.

Similar conferences will be held the fourth Sunday of each month during the remainder of the summer and fall.

Shops to Work Full Time.

Shops No. 1 and Western, which has been working half its shop force on a three day a week schedule, announces full resumption, effective today, for its 350 men, says a Lima, O. dispatch of the 18th inst.

The Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railway also announces the replacement of two-thirds of its complete force of 600 men on an eight-hour, five day a week schedule.

Fast Cattle Train Derailed.

W. E. Goodrich, fireman, was killed, and Thomas W. Byrne, engineer was dangerously injured in a wreck at Hickory, Ok., at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, when a spreading rail derailed a fast cattle train on the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad, going north from Sherman, Texas.

The Katy Team Won.

The M. K. & T. shops baseball team defeated the Stars in a listless game of ball on East Ninth street Sunday afternoon, the final score being 16 to 10. Batteries: Shopmen, Bahner and Ferguson; Stars, Ayers and Shine.

Trains on Branch Again.

Trains on the Lexington branch began running again through Independence today. Since June 25 no trains on this division have been run through that city because of damage by the flood.

Automatic Couplers.

Russell Hunter, night caller for the Katy, is laying off.

Morris Logan, a Missouri Pacific telegrapher of Green River, Wyo., and wife, who have been visiting relatives here and at Centerville, left the latter place this afternoon for their home in the west.

Edward Sheldon, messenger for the American Express Co., who was injured in the M. K. & T. wreck near Clinton on June 12, last, and who has been laid up at his home since, resumed work this morning. He has exchanged runs with C. A. Pearson, who runs on the Hannibal branch.

THREE AUCTIONEERS ON THE BLOCK

The "G. O. P." Lease With "Uncle Sam" Will Expire in Few Months—Stock on Hand to Be Sold, Commencing November 4.

Here is a good one from the Horton, Kan., Commercial, under the caption, "Great Closing Out Sale of G. O. P.":

"Our lease with Uncle Sam having practically expired, and having decided to quit business and retire to private life, we, the undersigned, will offer at public sale at our residence at the capitol in Washington, D. C., commencing on the 4th day of November, 1908, the following described property, to-wit:

"One elephant, about 45 years old; one financial panic, old enough to be weaned, sired by Gold Bug and damned by everybody; one republican platform, as good as new, but somewhat moss-grown; one big stick, but slightly impaired by overwork; one republican machine, the same being somewhat out of repair; one financial system, well supplied with clearing house certificates and a little cash; 5,000,000 Teddy bears, and other articles too numerous to mention."

"Everybody, regardless of past party affiliations or previous political servitude, is invited to attend this sale. It is expected most of the articles herein mentioned will be bid on by standpatters as relics. But everybody will be on the square and all the articles will be sold. There will be no by-bidders. Possession of property will be given March 4, 1909.

"Roast crow will be served on the grounds free by Young Men's Republican club. The sale will positively take place on the date mentioned, regardless of weather.

"JOHN R. WALSH, Clerk.

"Colonels Rockefeller, Morgan and Harriman, Auctioneers.

"P. S.—If any of the auctioneers or clerks at that time are restricted of their liberty by the court, others equally as good will be supplied on date of sale."
